also if you have dental problems (weak gums, bridges, caps) food can become trapped which can then absorb alcohol thus producing a false high on the breath machine